

Occupational Health and Safety Policy Canon Medical Systems Ltd

Canon Medical Systems is one of the leading global medical imaging companies and in the UK provides sales, installation and service support of such systems.

The Company is committed to:-

1. Continual improvement of its Occupational Health and Safety (OH&S) Record/Management System, by having a framework for setting improvement objectives

2. Compliance with applicable regulatory and other requirements to which it subscribes to, that relate to the company's OH&S hazards

Thus enabling the company to meeting its responsibilities to safeguard employees, stakeholders and the community.

To achieve this it is the duty of all employees to work within the confines of this policy, the Company's Occupational Health and Safety Management System and to co-operate with the Company in meeting all relevant statutory obligations.

The management's responsibility cannot be discharged without the co-operation of all employees, whatever duties they are asked to perform. Involvement by all, in the prevention of injury and ill health is, therefore, clearly the responsibility of all personnel.

The Company regards it as essential to promote joint discussions on the subject of safety, thereby ensuring involvement at all levels throughout the organisation. It is essential that all employees understand that no one person is the custodian of safety it is the responsibility of each employee.
